Among the many interesting affairs of the week was a reception given by Miss Jessie L. White, Tuesday night, April 2nd, in honor of Mr. Ray Robertson of Detroit, Mich. Mr. Fredie Sansing, of New York; home was effectively decorated with nowers. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Miss Veina Steele. A clever contest of what was played. Another feature that added pleasure to the reception was the musical program by Miss Elizabeth McClinton and Miss Dorthia Dilmvan. Later dinner was served and in the center of the table was a large basket lilles. Each plate was marked with a lily. A five course menu was served. At the conclusion of the dinner a well arranged program was directed by Miss Bessie and Dilious Willington, Mr. J. S. Steele, Mr. Ellis Robertson and Mr. Lucian Hendrix.

SOUTH PITTSBURG. The Hill-Marbury nuptials took place on the evening of the 6th when Mr. Henry Hill, formerly of Chattanooga, but recently of Richard City, led to the hymenial altar Miss Lora, the eldest daughter of Mr. Ned Marbury. The marriage took place on First street at the beautiful home of the bride's father, Rev. J. T. Martin, officiating. Dame rumor has been particularly busy concerning the nuptials of this popular couple. They have been reported in the matrimonial column for several weeks. The bride wore a beautiful gown of sky-blue silk, carrying a bunch of carnations in her wellshaped hands and a beautiful semi-wreath of orange blossoms caught up her lovely veil. She is beautifully formed—tall and straight. She is one of society's favorites, a gifted soprano singer, possessing a voice of enviable rich and round tone. Mr. Hill is accused of being handsome as well as industrious. He has sufficient height to "make good" in appearance. A host of friends witnessed the marriage ceremony, among whom were Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Martin, Miss Annie Stapler, Miss Wilson and Smith of Lemrock, Ala. week's visit to his family. The A. M. E. sticky, poor hair preparations, when you can get the best for only 25c. Herolin is not sticky or gummy, but very soft and pleasant to apply to scalp and hair; elegantly perfumed and comes in a pretty box.

YOU MUST TRY IT! Many colored folks are stopping the old fashioned kind and using Herolin exclusively. By applying a little Herolin two or four times a week your hair becomes soft, silky, straight, without snarls and pleasant and easy to handle. Hair also grows long, with new, nice, lovely, soft hair cropping out all over your head.
